Torrance Climbs in Business

Torrance has climbed nine notches to become the 34th ranking city in retail sales during the first half of 1958.

Fred Mill, president of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, pointed out that last year Torrance ranked 43rd among California cities, reflecting an increase in new commercial growth.

Retail sales during the second quarter of 1958 climbed to more than $17,000,000, an increase of $2,000,000 over the first quarter. Total taxable retail sales for the first six months amount to $32,017,000, Mill said. These figures do not include tax-exempt sales such as foods.

Sales breakdown for the second quarter include apparel sales, $700,000; general merchandise stores, $547,000; food stores, $554,000; packaged liquor, $650,000; eating and drinking places, $1,347,000. Others are drug stores, $752,000; furnishings and appliances, $661,000; building materials, $974,000; autos, $2,060,000; others, $758,000; personal service, $408,000; and manufacturing wholesale, $4,337,000.

At a recently held workshop, Mrs. Gordon T. Lewis discussed the local PTA child welfare projects. Mentioned were support of the 10th district clothes closet, the milk and lunch program, and the pre-compulsory nutrition classes, which give nutrition to exceptional children from the ages of six to seven.

The goal is to enable children not otherwise able to do so, to attend school well clothed and to have at least one hot meal a day.

Woman's Society Plans 'Familyland'

Visiting Nurses One of Many Red Feather Agencies

The Visiting Nurses Association is one of the 167 Red Feather agencies receiving support from the Community Chest campaign, and the visiting nurse has become an important helper in every community.

Often present during the final days of life caring for the lonely and the old, she is just as often called to help the young parents when a life has just begun. But she can often contribute the greatest variety of help when the patient is a child who must have regular injections of some sort, or needs help in adjusting to casts or braces which must be endured for many months.

Such a case is the one of five year old Brenda Wampler of 248 E. 121st St., whose body has been immobilized in a cast since last February. Brenda a beautiful, laughing-eyed child, developed tuberculosis of the spine and the treatment included an operation which fused the second to the fifth vertebrae. The entire trunk of her body was placed in a cast and she is not allowed to stand or bear any of her weight on her spine. She can wave her arm, and kick her feet, lie on her back or on her face.

Virginia Case of the Visiting Nurses Association of Torrance is the nurse who visits Brenda three times a week. Twice she comes to give the necessary "shots" which are helping to destroy the tuberculosis infection. But one day a week, and that is the day Brenda really welcomes her with a big smile, she comes to teach Brenda and her mother the type of physical therapy which will exercise the correct muscles.

Letters to The Editor

Letter to editor.
The Editor
Dear Sir:

It is my understanding an office was recently opened by the South Bay backers of Proposition No. 16. I was frankly amazed that there was support for a measure, which at best, can be called stupid. Why do I say it is stupid? Simply because it appeals, not to reason, but to prejudice, and "ignorance is the father of prejudice."

The proponents of this measure, which would repeal freedom from taxation of non-profit schools below collegiate level, must be lacking completely in a basic knowledge of subjects taught in the primary grades. Their inability to master simple arithmetic is actually appalling.

Non-profit school according to California Comptroller Robert Kirkwood, save the California tax-payers $188,000,000 in operating expenses annually; and an additional $350,000,000 in capital expenditures. This they do by educating 340,000 students in their school. For this huge savings to tax-payers, all they receive is a tax exemption of $1,800,000.

Now, one doesn't have to possess a doctorate in higher mathematics to see the savings to tax-payers. Simple second grade arithmetic will tell any citizen to vote "No" on No. 16, Nov. 4. If the people of Proposition 16 could read, and surely they must have some learning, they would read that all states of the Union and Alaska grant tax freedom for this important partner in our American educational system. Truly, these ill-informed individuals who would have us break with our sister states, must be members of a strange race. If they would master simple logic they could see the error in their reasoning of taxing elementary and high schools and not taxing colleges. By what twisted reasoning can you arrive at a conclusion that one level of education is to be taxed and another level exempt. Please boys, just think! It is our grade and high schools that are crowded to the point of half day sessions.

Probe of Slippage Continues

Councilmen will go on a field trip in the Victoria Knolls section Tuesday to get to the bottom of a land erosion problem which now threatens two homes, and could become more serious in the future.

Councilmen agreed to only one thing—someone is to blame for the land slippage. But they could not agree to the city taking a hand in solving the problem since correction of the situation could cost in excess of $30,000 and the city does not want to be pinned with the responsibility for the original error.

A motion by Councilman J. A. Beasley to build a trench and drain, suggested as the solution by John V. Russell, director of public works, did not receive any support.

Both Mayor Albert Isen, and Councilman Willys Blount agreed that public funds should not be spent on the project which will help only a few people.

Councilman Robert Jahn suggested that responsibility for the error be fixed by an investigation by City Engineer Ronald W. Bishop and City Attorney Stanley Remelmeier.

Two homes and Portobello Dr. and Grand Summit Rd. are affected by the erosion, and a city water reservoir is just below the slide area.

Building Shows Increase Here Over Last Year

Construction activities here are more than $4,000,000 ahead of last year for the 10 month period which ended Friday. During this period, $20,766,824 in building permits have been issued, compared with $16,094,112 for the corresponding period last year.

During October, permits with a valuation of $1,532,477 were issued compared with $1,444,083 for October 1957. The permits included 29 single family residences, three apartment buildings, six commercial buildings, two industrial buildings, 60 residential and 22 commercial additions, 10 swimming pools and 70 fences.
